

Resources: "I've Been Hacked" WordCamp Vancouver 2016

August 28, 2016 9:48 AM

I've put together some resources that I used for my presentation. If you have any questions, here's my contact information:

Aftaab Gulam

hello@aftaabgulam.com

+1 (604) 788-7523

Sucuri

Scan your site for free on the web to see what files are infected and if your site is blacklisted

<https://sitecheck.sucuri.net/>

Website hacked trend report 2016 Q1

<https://sucuri.net/website-security/Reports/Sucuri-Website-Hacked-Report-2016Q1.pdf>

Blog post: Sucuri on how websites get hacked

<https://blog.sucuri.net/2015/05/website-security-how-do-websites-get-hacked.html>

Blog post: How to keep your website safe

<https://kb.sucuri.net/remediation/After+Clean+Up/steps-to-stay-clean>

Hardening WordPress through the .htaccess file

https://codex.wordpress.org/Hardening\_WordPress

<http://thematosoup.com/wordpress-security-htaccess/>

Change your table prefix

<https://wordpress.org/plugins/db-prefix-change/>

Preventing brute force attacks

<https://wordpress.org/plugins/limit-login-attempts/> (note this hasn't been updated in a while, however, it still works very well)

Preventing SQL injections

<http://www.esecurityplanet.com/open-source-security/top-5-wordpress-vulnerabilities-and-how-to-fix-them.html>

reCaptcha

<https://www.google.com/recaptcha/intro/index.html>

Eli's Antimalware plugin to prevent from brute force attacks

<https://wordpress.org/plugins/gotmls/>

Web application firewall plugins

WordFence

<https://wordpress.org/plugins/wordfence/>

iThemes Security

<https://wordpress.org/plugins/better-wp-security/>

NinjaFirewall

<https://wordpress.org/plugins/ninjafirewall/>

Password managers

<http://www.pcmag.com/article2/0,2817,2407168,00.asp>

Antivirus Protection

<http://www.pcmag.com/article2/0,2817,2372364,00.asp>

Backup plugins

<http://www.wpbeginner.com/plugins/7-best-wordpress-backup-plugins-compared-pros-and-cons/>